

Bead Counting

The activity consists of 12 rows of bead counting. Each row features a horizontal string of 15 circles. The circles are grouped into three equal sections of five circles each, separated by vertical dashed lines. To the right of each row is a square box intended for the student to write the total number of beads in that row.