

Sorting Three-Dimensional Figures

- 1 Cut out each net and fold it along the dotted lines to make a three-dimensional figure.
- 2 Fit these two figures together (by matching two congruent faces together, one from each figure) to make a new figure.

See what new figures you can make.

How many ways can you combine these to make a prism?

How many ways can you combine them to make a pyramid?

